

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

Northumberland House, Ealing

The project is Northumberland House, Ealing. This project is for a 78 unit student accommodation building constructed using timber frame system, zinc cladding and external brickwork. Bathrooms are constructed as pods off site and are installed as the structure grows enabling a shorter duration program to be achieved.

Client Ankor properties

Value

Contract: 6.2m

Consultants:

Architect JSA

Structural Engineer PJCE

Duration 18 months