

QinetiQ, is one of the world's leading defence technology and security companies. This project comprises first call works, including extensions and alterations to existing buildings together with new build.

An ever changing establishment where a selection of orders are being worked through by our site based construction team, including refurbishment, new build, civil engineering and internal re-fitting works.

Works have been carried out to various buildings including those for training, commercial, administrative and laboratory.

Client	QinetiQ Plc
Value	Ongoing contract works Up to £1 million individually
Consultants	QinetiQ appointed Design Teams
Duration	52 weeks