

CASE STUDY

78 LINGHAM STREET, STOCKWELL, LONDON

The construction of this residential development is on land formally occupied by “The Brewery Tap” public house. The new development comprises the construction of 8 dual aspect apartments. Each with a significant garden or balcony to extend the living space of each property. Significant areas of glazing and high quality finishes will ensure best values will be attained for these properties.

Client Selstart Ltd

Value £1.4m

Consultants Jefferson Sheard Architects
 PRC Consulting Engineering

Duration 40 Weeks

PROFILE