

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

Bradwell Street, Mile End, London

A Redevelopment of the previous Network Rail Arches, to create 412 student bedrooms on behalf of Scape living. The development comprises of 4 towers located in 2 main blocks, East and west. Each tower is connected by a 4-story linking structure With A 1 story bicycle storage area located between the two Blocks.

The site is situated between the Railway lines, to the North, and Pooley House, to the South. The project also borders the Regent's Canal, to the East, and has residential domestic properties in Bradwell Street and Longnor Road, to the West.

The projects superstructure consists of RC Frame, with a facade comprising of Cladding and brick work.

Client Scape Living

Value £31M

Contract

Consultants:

Architects: Stephen Marshall Architects

Engineers: Campbell Reith

Duration 104 Weeks

Case Study