

Sheltered housing and the range of housing for the elderly (warden assisted, independent living, disability and mobility standards, bungalows and flats) is a significant part of our overall portfolio, both for Housing Associations and Local Authorities as well as for the Private Market.

This project resulted in 30 new flats built specially for the needs of the elderly population in the London Borough of Hackney, with a design that skilfully avoids the stereotype “institutional” impression given by many comparable developments.

Client            New Islington & Hackney H.A.

Consultants     Calford Seaden Partnership