

MANOR HOUSE, RICHMOND

A new single storey residential development constructed on the roof of an existing 2 storey commercial building. The site backs onto the Richmond to Kew over ground railway lines and will include the refurbishment of the existing building into either commercial units or residential units.

Client David Gooding

Value £3.1 million

Consultants Architects – Paul Brookes Architects
M&E – A & G Partnership
Structural Engineer – PRC Structural Engineers
