

A contract carried out for Network Housing Association which involved a phased development including the provision of a new print workshop. This facilitated relocating existing premises, demolition and final build out of all phases on a tight site bounded by the canal and a main road.

---

Client            Network Housing Association

---

Value            £3.8 million

---

Consultants    APT Architects

---

Duration        52 weeks

---